sources for housing affordability while we were there.

We participated in Utah housing coalition day on the hill on February 19th.

We requested hallway meetings during the session with our local legislators to tell them what we were working on in Summit & Wasatch counties. They were 5-minute meetings asking them to support affordable housing in Utah.

We worked on a local affordable housing workplan for the Wasatch back with our local leadership which included some members of the park city council & summit county council to highlight what we felt like were the top priorities around land use that we should focus on for the next year.

We did not make a specific ask for code changes or funding for affordable housing in this process. We categorized this as local advocacy for affordable housing with a plan for outreach to the respective councils for action fall 2020.

Restore

ReStore is a local social enterprise of Habitat that accepts and re-sells donations of gently used durable goods including building materials, appliances, furniture, and home furnishings. All ReStore revenues support Habitat's ability to plan and execute on its affordable housing and education programs, while also serving a significant social and environmental function, annually diverting more than 718 tons of waste from local landfills.

The ReStore expanded to offering new items in its "boutique": clothing, H&B products, games & puzzles and holiday decorations. It experienced several record-breaking months in sales.

from our community. Six new homeowners were selected for the 10-unit townhome project. Our homeowners are selected through a competitive application process that includes comprehensive financial education and are all asked to contribute "sweat equity" during the construction process.

Repair/Maintenance/Weatherization Program:

This collaborative project with the Summit County Health Department and Utah Physicians for a Healthy Environment is called Burn Smart Summit County. Habitat provides education and outreach about the health and environmental risks of wood smoke and offers wood burning fireplace exchanges. Special requests for maintenance were consulted one-on-one with a referral program, matching need with talent.

Education Programs:

Our critical education programs prepare low and moderate-income buyers for homeownership. This program includes free financial workshops and multi-session online courses, free housing counseling integrating in-person and online resources, and free advocacy and one-on-one referrals in-person and by telephone. This robust program helps hard-working people achieve economic stability. In the past year we served more than 650 individuals and 300 households.

Volunteer Engagement:

To maximize the efficiency of program delivery in all our service areas, Habitat utilizes a team of dedicated volunteers. During the 2020-2021 fiscal year, Habitat recorded 5,234 volunteer hours from 91 volunteers.
